ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 23rd March, 2007)

This Court while disposing of the Writ Petition No.2801 of 2004 permitted the petitioner to make an appropriate representation before the respondent and a direction was issued to the respondent to consider that representation in accordance with law.

(2) Learned counsel appearing for the respondent would submit that the respondent has considered the representation filed by the petitioner. This assertion of the learned counsel for the respondent requires to be accepted for the reason that he has produced a copy of the order passed by the respondent before this Court.

(3) In view of the above, in my opinion, there is substantial compliance of orders and directions issued by this Court. Accordingly, no further proceedings need to be continued. However, liberty is reserved to the petitioner, if he aggrieved by the order passed by the respondent, to approach an appropriate forum for appropriate relief. Ordered accordingly.
